Days of our Lives

Just as one year starts, another comes to an end. As the 1980's are left behind, we must set out to conquer the 1990's. The days have gone by so quickly they seem to have never occurred. Each day, however, is special because when put together these days make up a whole year, a whole decade, a whole life. Lincoln has been an important part of each one of our lives. The days spent here for some of us are over, for others there is a spectrum full of tomorrows yet to experience. The day we lived yesterday, the day we live today, and the day we will live tomorrow all make up the days of our lives.

Recognition of court reflects LHS tradition

Homecoming, September 11-15, was a week of renewed spirit and continued tradition.

Spirit week began on Monday as the student body wore their sunglasses and hats. Tuesday was designated clash day and Wednesday was the annual Hawaiian day. Thursday brought forth the traditional dress-up day and coronation assembly.

Victorious Rails show true spirit

Friday night's festivities opened with the release of maroon and gold balloons at the start of the football game.

At half-time the Rails left the field trailing Hoover, 7-14. The marching band and Railettes lifted spirits with their half-time performance. The Homecoming Court was introduced on the field in front of the Lincoln fans.

The game ended in glorious victory over the Huskies with a final score of 28-21.

Saturday night's dance was a night of celebration. The entertainment was provided by DJ Phil Wilson of KGGO. Pictures were taken by Stover Photography.

Cheering sparks spirit in students

Cheerleaders made their mark on school spirit by cheering at pep assemblies, painting victory signs, selling carnations at Homecoming, and motivating fans at games.

Reflecting on their years of experience, Lisa Swift and Cindy Higdon said,"The cheerleading squad as a whole has made tremendous progress over the past few years. We went from the new little cheerleaders at camp to being nominated to compete in Nationals, and we're very proud of that.

"Both of us have learned to listen to the ideas and complaints of all the cheerleaders, and they in turn listened to us. We really pulled together this year, and it showed."

All together the cheerleaders time and effort paid off in outstanding school spirit.

Railettes entertain entire student body

Railettes started the new year with a lot of pep. After practicing 8-10 a.m. three days a week through summer, and 6 a.m. all year long, they gave their first performance at the Chicken Bowl to What I Like About You, which they also performed at the first pep assembly.

Captain Shelley Camacho said, "I enjoyed being the captain. The team worked well together and it turned out to be a great year."

Railettes also dedicated every Friday evening to football or basketball games. They also marched with the band at halftime.

Three year sponsor, Patty Sonntag said, "We had a smaller squad this year, which gave me the opportunity to get to know everyone better. I think this made us a closer team."

Pep assemblies display enthusiasm

The pep assemblies were a very exciting part of the year. They were times full of spirit, pride, and recognition. The student body and the staff recognized Lincoln's fine athletes, performers, and scholars.

The cheerleaders led the crowd in traditional cheers like "Battle Cry" and "We Are the Rails". They also participated in several skits, like the one where pies were thrown at the football players.

The Railettes executed several routines throughout the year. They performed to popular songs such as What I Like About You and Hangin' Tough.

The pep assemblies provided the student body with a chance to show their enthusiasm and school spirit.

Marching Band finishes on top

A winning tradition was continued as the Marching Band took Division 1 ratings in two major competitions and a No. 1 rating at the State contest.

At the State competitions, held at Williams Stadium, the band received their twelfth straight No. 1 and scored higher than any other Lincoln band.

In the spring the students participated in the Drake Relays Parade, Pella Tulip Festival, and the Veisha Parade in Ames.

"Through hard work, dedication, and discipline, this is probably the finest Marching Band we've had at Lincoln," claimed band director David Killinger.

All-State winners show great talent

The All-State music competition, held on October 21 at Indianola High School, attracted students from all over Iowa vying for honors as All-State musicians.

Two band students were chosen as All-State musicians: Michelle Clark, alto clarinet, and Bridget Baker, flute. Three alternates were also chosen: Tim Gale, bassoon; Dan Schaffner, tuba; and Tracy Zeliadt, french horn.

All of the participants tried out with prepared music and played solos.

Concert band directed by Andrew Hanson, performed in four contests including the Adventureland contest. At the end of the year, combined with Wind Ensemble, they performed at Commencement ceremonies.

Jazz I, Jazz II

Jazz I, II added pep and excitement to six assemblies and five home games throughout the school year. They also performed in several contests: the SCIBA Jazz contest, the UNI Jazz contest, and the Creston Jazz contest.

At the State Jazz competition they received the highest score possible.

"Everyone has really pulled together to make this year a very positve and successful year," commented Jazz I member Michelle Clark.

Orchestra
Wind Ensemble

Orchestra was directed by Donald Webster. The orchestra performed in three evening concerts playing significant works by Vitali, Avison and Vivaldi. Members also performed for several local schools and at the state meeting for the Iowa Talented and Gifted Association.

Individual members of the group have earned high honors by being selected to perform in the All State Orchestra and by earning "1" ratings at local and state solo competitions.

In February, Lincoln hosted the Winter concert of the Greater Des Moines Youth Symphony. Over 50 percent of Lincoln strings participated in this group.

Directed by David Killinger, Wind Ensemble competed at state competion and received a top rating. They also performed at spring and winter concerts. At the end of the year, the group appeared at Vets Auditorium to perform at commencement.

Peer counselors solve problems

Peer Helpers is a group of 25 juniors who were selected by counselor Lorrie Streyfeller for their leadership qualities. These students are selected for the second semester of their junior year and the first semester of their senior year.

In this class, the students learn to improve their listening and counseling technique. They listen to problems and learn how to better deal with them. At the end of each year they take what they have learned and visit the junior high schools to prepare 8th grade students for the adjustment to high school.

Junior Sarah Meline commented, "This has been a great experience for all of us and I am looking forward to new challenges next year."

Student Council has another good year

Student Council is a student government organized to benefit the students, school, and the community. Members sold spirit ribbons during football season, sponsored a canned food drive, organized mixers, and held a blood drive.

More students than ever before signed up for the blood drive; nearly 150 students donated blood.

Many council members attended leadership conferences at Drake University. Treasurer Jane Schneller commented, "The conferences at Drake were a great learning experience for me, and I am looking forward to attending more conferences in the future."

Rails Club organizes night of Sweethearts

The Rails Club plays many important roles to help raise spirit at Lincoln. They decorate the field for Homecoming, hold the annual Buzz Book cover contest, and dress up for Halloween and Easter when they visit nursing homes and children's hospitals.

A special part of each year is the Rails Club-sponsored Sweetheart Dance. Students at the dance enjoyed getting pictures taken, going through a wedding ceremony, and dancing to the music of the Kruze band.

Rails Club officers were Beth Miller, president; Brian Cummins, vice-president; Jennifer Baker, secretary; Staci Lohrman, treasurer; and Aaron Hohl, historian. Sally Fisher led the group as the sponsor.

Dorian Art Club decorates school

Dorian Art Club completed their 36th year by bringing Lincoln together in spirit. Their Homecoming and Christmas decorations brightened the school once again. The 32 students were led by Stacie Kline, president; Jane Schneller, treasurer; Sarah Meline, secretary; Rusty Damante, historian; and sponsored by Donna Yeast.

Every year Dorian Art donates a piece of art work to the school. These are displayed in different parts of the building.

"I like belonging to the Dorian Art Club because we are a part of so much throughout the year," said Stacie Kline.

Yearbook creates Days of Our Lives

The yearbook staff chose Days of Our Lives as a theme, along with various other soap operas as division titles. At that point the year was underway.

The staff, under the supervision of Editors-in-Chief Christy Dickson and Amy Faller and Adviser Diane Weir, worked many long hard hours to bring creative and interesting ideas to life. With fall delivery, came more realistic deadlines which made it possible to have more color and better coverage.

The process of putting the yearbook together provided the staff members with an excellent opportunity to learn how to be responsible and organized. Finishing the yearbook gave everyone a great sense of pride and satisfaction.

the RAILSPLITTER

Under the leadership of Co-editors Aaron Lutyens and Jen Guttenfelder, the Railsplitter staff was successful in several accomplishments. The 15 member staff put out its first paper in less than three weeks. They completed 10 outstanding issues. For the first time in 10 years, they put together an eight page paper for the Christmas issue. A new column by Tim Peters added to the Railsplitter's success.

"I am very pleased with this year's staff. The group worked exceptionally well together. This is one of the best staffs I've worked with during my years at Lincoln," said Adviser Diane Weir.

"Being co-editor of the Railsplitter has been the highlight of my high school career. It has been a great learning experience and I am proud to be a member of such a fine team," said Co-editor Jen Guttenfelder.

"This year's staff was exceptionally creative. Their hard work and dedication kept the Railsplitter an award winning publication," said Co-editor Aaron Lutyens.

Drama department presents two plays

The Lincoln players performed a double dose of delight. Murder at theVicarage, the fall play, brought a mystery to the stage. The play was written by Agatha Christie, a British author, who is known throughout the world for her mystery novels and plays. The winter play, The Good Doctor , brought comic relief. It consisted of ten vignettes or scenes based on difficult and honest relationships. The play was written by Neil Simon, probably the most comercially successful playwright in America. The two contrasting plots provided great enertainment for the drama fans.

Choir "swings" their way to Disneyworld

Orlando was the main goal for Swing Choir this year. They were invited to stay a week in Florida and perform at Disneyworld. Although everyone was excited for the trip, they still had to concentrate on performing to the public. In November, the choir presented their Fall Show.

Swing Choir also performed in the annual Swing Fest involving 16 other schools. In addition, they participated in the State Swing Choir Contest, the Urbandale Competition, and the Cedar Rapids Competition.

Director Carroll Bennink commented, "This year's Swing Choir had excellent vocals, strong singers, and they were a visually exciting group to watch. I was very impressed."

All-State competition kept the music department jumping.

Competition held Saturday, October 21 at Indianola High school, attracted students from all over Iowa vying for honors as All-state musicians

Selections for Choir included Matt Wilson, bass; Mary Miller, soprano; Kathleen Kernes, soprano; Megan Scritchfield, alto; and Mike Bell, tenor.

Two alternates were also chosen: Chrystal Hughes, soprano; and Aaron Reynolds, tenor.

The Homecoming pep assembly was the first formal show for Prep Swing. They also showed pep during the winter by Christmas caroling.

All-Women's, Concert Choirs

Concert Choir had another successful year, highlighted by their Fall concert presentation. They performed a Christmas concert in December and in the spring followed a May concert and Large Group Contest.

They completed several fund raisers to finance their spring trip to Chicago for a concert and sight-seeing. Concert Choir is directed by Carroll Bennink.

Treble Choir and Varsity Choir combined to make an 85-member choir of all women's voices. The choir performed a variety of music including standard choral music, classical, jazz, and popular music.

Women's Choir performed in three home concerts and did a tour of Des Moines middle schools. They participated in a state contest. The choir is under the direction of Janice Cord.

Student tutors, student service

Each semester, a few select students are chosen out of the entire student body to tutor other students. These students devote one hour out of their day in the tutoring section of the library. Joyce Smith, in charge of student tutors said, "Our services are slowly picking up. We know we are helping some students and know we will be able to help even more in future semesters."

Another group of students that help out in a big way work as student helpers. These students are selected by teachers to help individual teachers and work in various offices. The students earn up to a quarter credit for each semester they help the teacher.

Softball team has promising season

The softball team finished the season with a 25-6 record. The team was knocked out of regionals by Dowling.

The team was led by four seniors: Julie Cronin, Lisa Gordon, Jenny Roe, and Karrie Sacks. Julie Cronin said, "Over all we did pretty well for having such a young team. Next season looks promising with five returning starters."

Graduate Jenny Roe and Freshman Kiersten Pauling were both selected as first team All Metro. Senior Kim Wilson and Junior Heidi Hoganson received second team All-Metro honors. Heidi Hoganson commented, "Due to strong competition in the Metro every game was a big one, and with good team unity we pulled a lot of them out."

This was John Ligouri's last year as head coach. He commented, "I was happy to finish my coaching career with this outstanding group."

Baggers place fourth in Metro

Finishing the season with a 15-14 record, the Baggers hoped and expected to contend for a Metro championship. Although the team swept a couple of games and beat a couple of top-ranked teams, the enthusiasm was not there. "We beat all the tough teams, showing the capability we had, but the team unity and enthusiasm level hurt us in the long run," said Jon Graham. Darrell Einertson and Russ Hall had exceptional seasons. Einertson turned in a 5-1 record pitching with an ERA of 1.86, and Hall led the Baggers with a .378 batting average. Einertson was honorable metion; Hall made first team All-Metro.

Soccer, Golf

With a rough season, the Kickers finished below expectations. "Even though we lost a few, we played together as a whole. The experience gathered toward the end of the season makes the future look bright," commented Chad Taylor. Three individuals were picked in the top two Metro teams: Chang Chae, Darrin Fergusen and Scott Jansen.

The Linksters played well early in the season, taking first place in a meet with North and Hoover. They also played well against East and Ames, September 7, taking second place.

"We were inexperienced at the beginning of the season. The team had no unity. Everyone did his own thing. Now we play like a team. We expect to do well next year," said Mark Wisehart.

Girls finish well; boys look ahead

The girls' cross country team finished a roller coaster season with a big disappointment. Valley edged them out of the State Meet by one point. Although the team as a whole did not qualify, Freshman Kiersten Pauling was able to go on by finishing second in Districts. At the State Meet she finished a close second, missing first place by six-tenths of a second.

The boys' team did not do quite as well, although the season did have a few high points. In the Urbandale Classic, Robert Allen placed second and Marty Talarico placed sixteenth in the senior division.

In Districts, they were able to defeat Oskaloosa and North; however, their best place was only thirty-third.

Travis Christopherson summed it up best when he said, "We had a small, inexperienced team and as a result were unable to place well. However, we gained experience and we'll do better in the future."

Spikers strive to achieve goal

The volleyball team enjoyed a successful season which started off with a first place win at the Gladbrook Tournament. They tied for second in the Metro Conference with an 11-3 record. They were led throughout the season by senior co-captain Monnette Wagner and junior co-captain Natalie Driscoll. Commented Natalie Driscoll, "Our great team unity and good leadership led us to one of the best seasons that Lincoln volleyball has had."

With the graduation of four seniors and a young experienced team, next year promises to be an exciting season. "Next year's team looks promising with many talented players returning," said senior Marnie Ison.

Team defeats strong rivals

The Gridders finished with another winning season. The Rails started off the season with three consecutive victories. After an impressive 28-6 win at Marshalltown, the Gridders traveled to Ames for their second win.

A Homecoming victory was the next challenge. The Rails trailed Hoover 12-7 at halftime, but later rallied to capture 21-14 victory.

On Friday the 13th, Coach Kyle Black made the statement, "Tonight the Southside Jasons come alive!" The Gridders did just that. The Rails went enroute to defeat the undefeated seventh -ranked Scarlets.

The defense kept the Scarlets' running attack in a stronghold and allowed Lincoln's offense to stay on the field for most of the night.

Blemishing the Scarlets' perfect record, Steve Tomlinson rushed for two touchdowns, with Dion Manuel and Shane Roerig gaining the other two. The Gridders won the game 27-20.

Gridders earn recognition

All of the Gridders had a successful season, but there were a few standouts. Receiving second team All-Metro honors were seniors Shawn Forrester, Russ Hall, and junior Dion Manuel. Placed on the first team All-Metro were John Feucaloro, Joe Bianchi, Mike Patterson, and Jon Graham. Even a greater achievement was made by Joe Bianchi, who made the class 4-A second team All -State.

Aside from being first team All-Metro, Mike Patterson and Jon Graham were placed on the class 4-A first team All -State. John Graham made the greatest achievement when he was selected as first team All-State Elite.

Teams look ahead to strong seasons

The underclass football teams showed exceptional ability this season.

The sophomore team seemed to get better week by week. Losing their first three games by six points each, they came around to win their next two games over Roosevelt and North. They won two out of their last three games to finish the season with a 4-4 record. Brian Wasko led the offense at quarterback; split-end Tyrone Dodson and linemen Mike Daughenbaugh and Ron Witt also contributed.

Finishing the season with a 6-2 record, the freshman football team showed promise for the years ahead. A.J. Russo led the team at quarterback. The team had a strong offense. Some of Russo's favorite receivers were Jason Huizenga, Payton James, and Dave Edwards. Cliff Baker led the running attack, and helping on the offensive line were Shane Theis and Charlie Bagby.

Girls' swim team shows potential

Despite their 1-8 record, the girls' swim team had a very successful year. A very tough Metro Conference made the Tankers record misleading. Coach Dan Paulson said, "It is hard to place high in the conference when five of the teams are rated in the top 10 in the State."

Sophomore Debbie McVey placed first in diving at districts and finished ninth at state. Debbie commented, "This year was a great year for me, but next year I hope to break the school record ."

Juniors Julie and Sandy Stundins said, "We had a lot of fun this season, but with many experienced swimmers returning, next year we should have a better season."

Boys' swim team has excellent year

The Boys Swim Team continued with another successful season. The Tankers qualified seven swimmers and one diver for the state meet and finished with a 7-3 record.

The team started off strong by beating Hoover, Boone and East consecutively, but then lost to long time rivals Roosevelt and Dowling. The Tankers then came back with victories against North, Ames, Southeast Polk, and Urbandale, before losing to nationally ranked Valley.

Next came the District meet where they finished a close third behind Newton and Roosevelt. The team had almost 100 per cent time drops at the district meet.

Qualifying for state were the 200 medley relay team of Bob McVey, Scott Lundgren, Tom Reece, Brandon Donaldson and the 400 freestyle relay team of Bryan Hendricks, Bob McVey, Greg Thompson, and Eric Harrison. Individual qualifiers were Eric Harrison in the 50 and 100 yard freestyle, Greg Thompson in the 200 and 500 yard freestyle, Bob McVey in the 100 backstroke, and Floyd Castle in diving.

Senior Eric Harrison commented "We didn't swim as well at state as we did at districts, but it was a great experience to swim with the fastest swimmers in the state.

With only five graduating seniors, and 35 swimmers returning, the Tankers are setting their sights on a possible Metro championship next year.

Grapplers send three to State

The Grapplers started off the season strong with a second place finish at the Harlan Invitational. They then traveled to Hoover where the team tied the Huskies. With a third place finish at Saydel, a first place finish at Ottumwa, and two more wins over S.E. Polk and Roosevelt the team was showing much improvement.

After losing a tough dual meet to Indianola the team moved on to Districts. Finishing third overall, three Grapplers advanced to the State meet. They were Eddie Dunham at 140, Dan Remele at 130, and Jerry Mauk at 112. Jerry Mauk advanced to quarterfinals, but was defeated 10-7.

Next season looks promising with two State meet qualifiers and many letterwinners returning.

Inexperienced girls work to receive recognition

The girls varsity basketball team finished off the season with a 13-7 record and many honors. The team had to fight hard to overcome the inexperience of a young team. The top seven included the only senior, three juniors, two sophomores and one freshman.

In the McDonalds' Tournament the girls took first place and placed four people on the All-Tournament team: Senior Dana McNally, Junior Nicole Tuller, and Sophomores Tracy Olerich and Lanette Brooks.

On the road to the State Tournament the Rails easily beat North and moved on to Dowling. The loss to Dowling was devastating for the girls as they had previously beaten the Maroons by 19 points.

The Register chose McNally for first team All-Metro. Olerich and Brooks received special mention, while Juniors Nicole Tuller and Tina Burgett received honorable mention. The coaches honored McNally with a first team All-Metro selection and Brooks with a second team All -Metro pick.

Two team members were also honored by USA Today. Freshman Kiersten Pauling was named among other underclassmen for doing extraordinary things in a first or second year. McNally was named among the top eight players in Iowa.

Nine seniors lead Rails through tough season

The boys' varsity basketball team faced one of their toughest schedules yet. Although their record says 7-13, that does not reflect how hard they worked this year. Nine of their losses were to teams either rated in the top 10 or finished in the top 10 in the state. The hardest games were ones such as first rated East Waterloo. The Cagers led the whole game, only to have the game tied and carried into overtime, which resulted in a devastating loss. Another tough loss was to third rated Ankeny. The lead changed hands many times, only to be out of reach in the last 15 seconds.

Nine seniors led the Rails through this very competitive year. Coach Tom Lee said, "We worked very hard this year. All the time we had a great attitude, and I am very proud of the excellent senior leadership we had this year." The Rails' hard work paid off with certain players earning All-Metro awards. Senior Chuck Grigsby earned second team, while Senior John Feucaloro and Junior Greg Blomgren received third team ratings. Two seniors, Aaron Lutyens and Mike Patterson, received honorable mentions.

Coach Lee will retire from his position as Head Coach of the varsity boys' basketball team this year. "I really enjoyed coaching these boys and I am very proud to have been the coach for eight years."

Girls' golf team swings away

The girls' team had a hard road this season. The first two meets were cancelled due to rain. They then completed one tournament and one dual meet. They lost to Indianola in the dual meet and they finished eleventh out of fourteen in the Valley Classic Tournament.

The team was made up of two juniors, one sophomore and five freshmen. With such a young team, this season was filled with much adversity.

Tennis teams have exceptional season

The combination of returning letterwinners and devoted players gave the girls' team a competitive edge this season. The ten returning letterwinners provided the team with experience and talent. Co-captain Christy Dickson said, "The entire girls' team was excited to have a successful season. We knew that with everyone returning our chances were very good to finish high in the Metro and in post-season play. We achieved our goals by playing well individually and also working together as a team."

The boys' had a young team which, although inexperienced, showed much promise for the future. Judd Hardcastle, returning senior letterwinner and captain, said, "This year was really a lot of fun. We had a very good season considering the inexperience that we had. The underclassmen improved vastly over the course of the season and that should prove to be a good foundation for them to get off to a good start next season."

Track teams finish year with success

The Girls' Track team looked strong all season by finishing among the top three teams in all of their meets. Qualifying for the Drake Relays were Falana Sullivan and Marla Coleman in the 100 meters and the 4x100 relay team of Heidi Hoganson, Tina Burgett, Marla Coleman, and Falana Sullivan. School records were broken by Falana Sullivan in the 100 and 200 meters, Mo Wagner in the shot put, and the 4x100 relay team. Other strong runners were Juniors Jenny Nessen and Tanya Lancee, Sophomore Tracey Olerich and Freshman Kiersten Pauling.

The Cindermen started the season off with two wins over Hoover and Newton. With little experience, the team was mostly made up of freshmen and sophmores. Qualifying for the Drake Relays were the 4x100 relay team of Jason Storm, A.J. Russo, Cory Hill, Chad Winfrey, and the 4x400 relay team of Matt Smith, Pat Starr, Wallace Obie, and Matt Law. Coach VanderLinden commented, "Our freshman class was probably the strongest among the Metro teams."

New principal takes charge

"It is unbelievable that since 1923 only four men have held the title of principal," Thomas R. Drake said.

Carolyn Cowles, Spanish teacher, said "Mr. Drake has made some positive changes. I like that he listens and hears what I say." Secretary Shirley Garland said, "Mr. Drake is intelligent, enthusiastic, energetic, possesses a great sense of humor and is a pleasure to work with."

This past year was somewhat of a trial run for Mr. Drake. "I just want to listen to the students, the parents, and the teachers. I want to know how everyone feels. I want their ideas." said Drake. His main goal can be summed up in the Mission Statement, "Lincoln High School will lead, inspire, and graduate our young people to meet the challenges of the future for themselves and this community."

Other goals included decreasing the dropout rate, getting everyone active in school programs, and building on Lincoln's successes to make it the best high school in Iowa.

Business Professionals of America

Junior and senior students who wish to gain experience in preparing for office occupations are actively involved in the Office Education program. Each afternoon these students work in offices throughout the Des Moines Business community from three to five hours as typists, secretaries, receptionists, proof operators, and accounting clerks.

Students are members of the national student organization--Business Professionals of America. The members complete many projects which serve the community by helping the underpriviliged, ill, aged, and mentally or physically handicapped. They prepare for leadership roles through workshops and conferences and develop their professionalism through speakers, tours, and seminars.

OEA officers are Jenny Grylls, president; Charis Creighton, vice-president; Shophia Kissell, treasurer; Gabe Celghorn, secretary; Karen Armel, reporter; and Lisa Garsh, historian.

Physical Education

All students are required to take physical education. Freshman take it everyday; sophomores and juniors are required to take it two days a week. Seniors have contract P.E., which means every nine weeks they are required to turn in contracts signed by a parent or a sponsor certifying that they participated in some type of physical activity.

Physical education activities include: swimming, basketball, tennis and baseball. A new activity, beginning this year, is roller skating.

Driver Education

NJROTC students begin to plan Navy careers

NJROTC, or Naval Junior Reserve Officers Training Corp. is a course developed to better inform and produce more responsible citizens. The cadets work strictly on self-discipline, self-esteem, and self-control together as a team or unit. They also work on being knowledgeable about the United States, as well as the United States Navy. After graduation, cadets who wish to enlist in any branch of the service may do so at an advanced pay grade. Other opportunities include ROTC college scholarships and nominations to military academies.

NJROTC consists of a Color Guard, Drill Team, Rifle Team, Pistol Team, Academic Team, an extremely talented staff, and a lot of hard working cadets. All particpate at the football and basketball games, as well as at many other special performances.

Junior company assistant supply officer Adam Jones said, "NJROTC is a science course, history course, and a geography course rolled into one. Yes, we drill, but nothing beats the excitement of marching in a parade or performing in a color guard."

Juniors and seniors are provided with a chance to relax and enjoy refreshments, video games, and studying, while in student center. Student center is an alternative choice to taking a study hall.

In the library, Janis Leise and Lillian Cole welcomed the Comcat computer system, which has enhanced the library tremendously. Comcat allows easy access to computer systems of 13 other area high schools.

Class Represcntative Jessica Thompson

The senior class elected officers through a new procedure. In previous years, officers received their position by popular vote; the president was elected with the top number of votes; the vice-president had the second number of votes etc. The new procedure involved a primary held to narrow the slate for president and vice-president (prom), vice-president (banquet), and two class representatives. The class treasurers were selected by Vice-principal Al Graziano and senior homeroom teachers, rather than by vote. Once placed into office, the senior officers planned and helped with various senior activities.

The senior class chose Vongkam Racksaouk to be president. His responsibilities involved working with the committees to organize the various events. He also led the senior class in the Pledge of Allegiance at the graduation ceremony.

The class elected Stacie Kline as vice-president, prom. She oversaw all the details of prom.

Jill Schneller and Angela Herold, treasurers, were elected to handle the financial details which included senior dues, name card money and announcements.

Called on to represent the senior class at committee meetings were Jessica Thompson and Lisa Allen.

Senior Prom was held at the Hotel Fort Des Moines May 12. "Tommorow's Memories" as the theme, along with the colors black, white and silver for the color scheme, made the evening unforgettable.

"Turning Point '90" was the theme for the Banquet held April 26. Student speakers were Jill Schneller, Jonn Durbin, and Jason Fuller. Foreign exchange student Helge Rowold gave a speech on his impression of Lincoln.

Commencement took place at Veterans Memorial Auditorium on May 29 at 8 p.m. Again students were chosen to speak: David Hufschmid, Erika Moore and Stephanie Heitman.

At Class Day, May 25, outstanding seniors were presented with honors and awards. The top 3 percent and 15 percent were also recognized.

The senior year brought about many changes in polices and in the attitudes of students . Seniors were involved in each step of planning their activities. This made their senior year more special for them. These changes have set a standard for graduating classes to follow. The days here have prepared the class for the more interesting and challenging obstacles that lay ahead for them.

Scott D. Floyd II

March 15, 1973 - January 6, 1990

"If I should ever leave you whom I love
To go along the Silent Way
Grieve not, nor think of me with tears
But laugh and talk of me as if I were beside you,
For who knows but I shall be oft times."

"I'd come! I'd come could I but find a way!
But would not tears and grief be barriers?
So when you hear a word I used to say
Or see a thing I loved,
Let not your thought of me be sad,
For I am loving you, just as I always have."

Kevin R. Reese

September 21, 1973 - December 21, 1989

IN MEMORY OF A CHILD

The angels guide him now, and watch his curly head,
And lead him in their games, the little boy we led.

He cannot come to harm, he knows more than we know,
His light is brighter far than daytime here below.

His path leads on and on, through pleasant lawns and flowers,
His brown eyes open wide at grass more green than ours.

With playmates like himself, the shining boy will sing,
Exploring wondrous woods, sweet with eternal spring.

From Collected Poems , by Vachel Lindsay
The Macmillan Company, 1955

In Memory of Frank Funaro

Friendly
Reliable
Accommodating
Neighborly
Kindly

Frank Funaro, known as "the little man who was always there," was born in 1926, and died in November 1989. Frank was a custodian at Lincoln for 24 years.

According to his co-workers, Frank was hardly ever late and seldom missed a day of work. He is greatly missed by his co-workers, and he is remembered for the many tasks he was always willing to help with.

Frank and his wife Jeannie had two children and were the grandparents of two boys.

Frank was a very well-known man at Lincoln, and he could walk into almost any store on the south side and someone would recognize him.

Frank's contributions to Lincoln are countless and he will always be appreciated and remembered.

Look to this day! For it is life,
The very life of life.
In its brief course lie all the varieties
And realities of your existence.
The bliss of growth,
The glory of action,
The splendor of beauty,
For yesterday is but a dream,
And tomorrow is only a vision;
But today well lived
Makes every yesterday a dream of happiness,
And every tomorrow a vision of hope.
Look well, therefore, to this day!

Karen Christensen, Jennifer Alvord, and Kristen Slezak delight in prom activities.

James Helt, Ron Bergmann, and Ryan Hall look hungry and ready to eat their Senior Banquet meal.
